“Declare God’s Glory among the nations, God’s marvelous works among all the people!” 1 Chronicles 16:24

Greetings to the Presbytery of Cincinnati!

I wish to take a few minutes to invite you to attend the next Stated Meeting on Saturday, February 24th at Madeira-Silverwood Church. We will be offering 12 different workshops, at two times, in the morning and afternoon, in order to provide needed information, resources, training, and relationship building.

We also will hear from one of our Mission Co-Workers in the Presbyterian Church (USA) via Skype. This year, our offering focus for Presbytery meetings will be on our Mission Co-Workers and Partners, and how our congregations can be better participants in Mission Giving to our connectional church: Presbytery, Synod and General Assembly.

There will be reports from the Committee on Ministry, Presbytery Council, Evaluate and Imagine Team, Church Order, along with doing other regular business of the Presbytery.

Our special guest, The Reverend Dr. Joan Gray, Moderator of the 217th General Assembly, will deliver our message and be one of the workshop presenters. She is also willing to sign copies of her book Ruling Elders as Spiritual Leaders, which you can bring with you or purchase in the PC(USA) Bookstore set-up at Madeira-Silverwood on Saturday, February 24. On the day of the Presbytery meeting, the Bookstore will accept only cash and checks (made payable to “Presbytery of Cincinnati”). The Presbyterian Women will have a Fair Trade Store in the rotunda area of the church. A lunch will be served by the MSPC congregation, so we ask you to register in advance, forwarding your RSVP via your workshop registration form, due in the Presbytery Office on February 15.

This will be a fun filled, spiritual adventure you will not want to miss. I will be looking to welcome you on the 24th!

See you in Madeira,

Bob Young, Moderator of Presbytery
