Listening to Your Neighbor

We invite you to find a few neighbors who are willing to be interviewed for 15 -20 minutes.

Here are some questions you might want to ask you neighbor. Feel free to add your own questions to the mix.

1. How would you define your neighborhood?

2. How long have you lived/worked in this neighborhood?

3. What do you appreciate the most about the neighborhood?

Listening to Your Neighbor (continued)

4. What's one challenge you think the neighborhood is facing?

5. What's one hope you have for the neighborhood?

6. How do you think God is present in the neighborhood, if at all?